

- I. Welcome – Jessica Hart Steinmann, President opened the meeting at 12 noon.
- II. Prayer - Dr. Ashley Prince, Chaplain
- III. Pledges – John Escoto, Mayor of Shenandoah, led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance and Misty Odenweller, CISD Board of Trustees Member, led the club in the Texas Pledge of Allegiance.
- IV. Business Meeting and Committee Reports
 - A. 2nd VP of Membership & Bylaws Chair - Beverly Briggs – Announced that our club was now considered Jumbo status and that we had 58 Associate members and 122 Primary members as of this date.
 - B. Secretary Report & Approval of Jan. Meeting Minutes – Jessica reported that the meeting minutes from the March luncheon were published on the TWRW website and since there were no additions or changes to the minutes they would be accepted as filed.
 - C. Treasurer Report - Patty Carter reported our bank account balance as of this date was $44,210.47.
 - D. Legislative - Ann Herbek introduced Brandon Kiser from Senator Brandon Creighton’s office and Cassandra Crowe from Representative Steve Toth’s office. Each gave an update on their respective Senator and Representative’s efforts to usher through the Parents’ Bill of Rights and the Teachers’ Bill of Rights through the legislative process.
 - E. Scholarship - Molly Smith our new Scholarship Chair thanked her committee for their hard work in reviewing the scholarship applications and reminded everyone that the deadline for submitting the scholarships was 4/21/23. She asked for volunteers to attend Senior Days at the high schools to present the awarded scholarships.
 - F. Annual Fundraiser/Publicity - Eva Ray reported that the Derby Party fundraiser had already received $22,000 in sponsorships and ticket sales. The Derby Party would take place at Porta’ Vino on May 1st from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Eva encouraged all members to come and bring guests.
- V. Upcoming Meetings and Events
 - A. May 1 - TWRW Annual Fundraiser - Derby Day at Porta’Vino
